After reading the lesson and taking notes, students are expected to do either a Thinking Map or some sort of visual processing of the information. They are given a prompt and a format (type of Thinking Map) to follow. This side is worth 5 points.

Example
Create a Tree Map to categorize the different responsibilities of Men/Boys, Women/Girls, and Every Colonist in a Puritan colony according to the text.